

In his recommendation upon the proposed National Legislative Council President Polk said: "I would suggest that a Legislative Council be formed, to be composed of our National President, who shall be ex-officio Chairman, and the Presidents of all the State Alliance representatives, so that it may be decided that this body shall hold its annual meeting within sixty days after the adjournment of the Supreme Council, at such time and place as may be designated by the National President; that it be empowered and authorized to appoint such legislative committees as may be deemed necessary; and that it be required to transmit to each of the States, in printed form, through the National Secretary, for distribution to the reform

"What an ill-mannered galsoot!" was the muttered comment as he gave Nolan a shove. "You're a damned nuisance!"

While his perturbed rider was gazing across the stream in the direction taken by the shy horseman, "T've half a mind to drop the ranch and put out after that fellow. That ravin' can't go on in so very long a time as that!"

But what he must soon show up on was the thought of the man who had been "run him down." After a moment's reflection, however, Mr. Perry concluded, that as he had come so far and was now nearly within rifle shot of the mysterious all of his morning ride, he might as well let the stranger go, and pushed on.

The stream, bent southward just at the point where he had first caught sight of the horseman, and around that point he drew the ranch to be. Very probably at was one of the ranchmen of whom Mr. Lawrence had spoken—churlish fellow!

quadrants of his eye could tell him what manner of place this was. Meantime his rider was intently eyeing the heavy padlock that was secured on the inner side of the gate. It was square in shape, massive and bulky—something utterly unlike anything he had ever seen among the quartermaster's stores. Dismounting and holding Nolan well back from the aggressive fence with one hand, he gingerly passed the other through the spike fringed aperture and turned the padlock so as to get a better view. It was of English make, as he surmised, and of strength sufficient to resist anything short of a trip hammer. Evident-

CLINTON, N. C., DEC. 11, 1890.

The 54 session of the North Carolina Methodist Conference met in Wilson Wednesday, Bishop Keener presiding.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says: "It is no longer a 'Solid South,' it is a solid union, demanding moderation and lower taxes."

We are glad to see that the News and Observer is beginning to see something good in the Alliance and learning that its great mission is a fight for good government.

The Railroad Investigating committee has closed its labors. It has prepared a report to be submitted to the next General Assembly, but the nature of the report has not yet been made public.

Mr. B. C. Bechwith Secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee will be a candidate for Chief Clerk of the next House of Representatives. He is a fine young man and did excellent service in the late campaign. The House cannot elect a more worthy or efficient officer for the position than Mr. Bechwith.

The State Board of agriculture was in session last week. The Legislature will be asked to make an appropriation for the Agricultural and Mechanical College and also to maintain the Immigration Bureau. The Board also recommends that the Legislature pass a law placing a tonnage tax on guano shipped into the State.

The New York Star in a leading editorial rebukes certain Democratic politicians and Democratic newspapers who are abusing Alliance leaders and trying to throw cold water upon the farmers for honest good government movement. In closing the Star says:

Let the Imperialists do all the worrying about the agricultural movement. It is a Republican funeral the farmers are preparing, not ours.

It was in 1882 that Dr. Robt. Koch discovered the bacillus of tuberculosis, the parasite which produces pulmonary consumption. Having found the cause, for eight years he experimented searching for a remedy. The result is the lymph with which he inoculates the patient. Six years ago M. Louis Pasteur proved that hydrophobia may be prevented by a system of inoculation. A few months since Prof. Tillmans, of Leipzig, successfully treated consumption by cutting out the diseased portion of the left lung.

"THE BEAUTY OF ITS ORIGINAL DEFORMITY."

Senator Vane, Democratic member of the committee on Privileges and Elections said in the Senate last Saturday while the Domesticity clause of the Force Bill was under discussion "My recollection is that no part of the House bill was struck out by the committee, and I recall what I said to the committee that I wanted the bill to appear before the American people in all the beauty of its original deformity, so that if anything was struck out of the bill it was struck out by the majority in a private session; I was not there and cannot testify as to what was done, for I stand out in the chancellery of the ungodly." [Applause.]

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shont, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mount, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell the world that Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am now sound and well, gaining 20 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Loves' Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, Croup, and all other ailments, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousands of friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at R. H. Holliday's Drug Store, Clinton, N. C., and John R. Smith, druggist, Mount Olive, N. C. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00.

Although Hood's Sarsaparilla is not claimed to be a positive specific for rheumatism, the remarkable cures it has effected show that it may be taken for this complaint with reasonable certainty of benefit. Its action is neutralizing the acidity of the blood, which is the cause of rheumatism, constipation, the source of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you suffer from rheumatism, give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial; it will do you good.

Index to New Advertisements.

Notice—Amos J. Grisham. Your Christmas Eggs Nogg—Watson & Peterson.

We are pleased to see Mr. F. T. Atkins out again. He has been sick, and confined to his room for about two weeks.

We are glad to learn that the little daughter of Mr. W. T. Williamson, who was badly burned a few days since, is improving.

Where are you going to buy your Christmas goods and what are you going to buy? Watch the advertising columns of THE CAUCASIAN. This will settle the question.

In last issue we intended to say that we hoped that Alpha, the new correspondent from Franklin would never change "his" name to Omega. The type made us say just the opposite. We hope to hear from Alpha regularly.

Mr. B. S. Peterson suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday evening while waiting on customers at W. G. Rackley's store. He was apparently as well as usual, when suddenly he lost the use of his limbs and came near falling. We are glad to learn that he is better to day.

See in another column Sheriff Spell's notice to tax-payers, stating the last chance you will have to pay your taxes without cost. No county in the State has a better sheriff than Sampson. It would give him pain to be forced to add cost to the tax of any one, so let us pay up promptly.

The biennial meeting of the officers of the Second Regiment of State Guard was held in Wilmington at "The Orton" on last Thursday evening. Capt. J. F. Bruton was made chairman and Capt. W. A. Johnson, Secretary. Col. W. C. Jones was re-elected Colonel. Capt. John F. Bruton was elected Lieutenant-Colonel. Maj. W. L. Faison was re-elected Major.

Died, Mrs. Mary E. McMillan, wife of our townsman, Mr. Neill McMillan on last Tuesday evening. She was about 29 years of age and had been sick only a few days. She was a good woman and had been a member of the Baptist church since 12 years old. The funeral services were conducted yesterday by Rev. O. P. Meeks. The body was interred in Clinton cemetery.

Why fill a store with goods, and then keep dark about it? It costs money every day and every hour to carry a stock of goods. Let the public know what you have to sell. Interest the people—attract them—do not allow them to forget you or your crowded shelves. Turn on the lights, especially the brilliant, steady and far-reaching light of advertising—Cin. Com. Gazette.

In by-gones, circulars, handbills, flyers and other promiscuous matter printed from big type were cast away upon the sidewalk. Then came a change—reaction set in; the merchant found that his advertisement did not pay him as well as he wanted it to. He then learned the value of a paper like THE CAUCASIAN, and secured space in its columns through which to talk to his customers each week.

From what we hear the good people of Western Sampson will do the thing up in handsome style on Friday of next week, December 19th. They will have a big barbecue. Have invited Hon. B. F. Grady and other speakers for the occasion, and will have the Fayetteville band down to furnish music for the occasion. The Alliance is taking the lead in the movement, but extends an invitation to all others who feel so inclined to join with them.

Miss Berta Hobbs has been visiting in Warsaw and Clinton.

Mr. Dixon Butler left for Brunswick Ga., Monday.

Mrs. T. M. Ferrell who has been quite sick is improving.

Rev. C. P. Jerome left Tuesday for Wilson to attend the Methodist Conference.

Miss Mittie Beaman left yesterday morning for Wilson where she will spend a week visiting friends.

Editor Rosewater of the Headlight gave us a call last week. We are glad to know that his paper is prospering.

Mr. A. F. "Sandy" Peterson, of the firm of Watson and Peterson has returned from a trip to Western Carolina.

Mr. E. T. Pigford of Magnolia gave us a pleasant call a few days since. He is visiting his sons Mr. James Pigford and Rep. elect W. K. Pigford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McKoy are home on a short visit. Mr. McKoy has resigned his position with Thacker & Co., and will go into the Railroad business of Jan. 1st.

His Honor Judge Boykin is home for the holidays. He finished his fall circuit at Hannett court last week. We are pleased to see him completing press notices of his ability and famous as a Judge every where he holds a court.

We are pleased to see in town this week Mr. James Ireland, a native of Sampson, who is now in the milling business in Mobile, Ala. He gave our office a pleasant call. He is as much interested in Sampson as ever and reads THE CAUCASIAN each week to keep posted.

Court in Session.

The December term of the Superior Court for Sampson commenced last Monday, His Honor, Judge Armfield presiding. The Judge in his charge to the Grand Jury in addition to the usual remarks of the law made the strongest and most forcible defense of the Jury system that we have ever heard. He showed how in troublesome times when the technicalities of the law bore heavily upon those morally innocent, the Jury prompted by a common sense of right and wrong would take the law into their own hands and temper it into equity, but in times of peace this was scarcely ever necessary for law and equity are or should be the same. He met every objection that has been urged against the Jury system and showed that those who advocated changing the present system (especially those favoring a majority vote) are the worst enemies of the system, as they desire those changes not to perfect the system, but to make it imperfect, bring into contempt and therefore destroy it.

His Honor is a clear, impressive and fluent talker, a good worker, and is quite a favorite with the bar and the public generally. No Judge within our recollection has ever made a finer impression upon our people.

Mr. C. A. Thompson, of Giddensville, was made foreman of the Grand Jury.

Messrs. W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, A. D. Ward, of Kenansville, and F. P. Jones, of Dunn, are the visiting attorneys present.

Our popular Solicitor, O. H. Allen, was promptly on hand at his post.

His Honor, Judge Boykin, was present in the bar while Judge Armfield was delivering his charge to the jury.

WILMINGTON AS A WINTER RESORT.

The Elegant Orton, the Halfway House between Jacksonville and New York City.

The advantages and attractions of Wilmington as a winter resort are becoming more widely known, and appreciated every year. We were talking to a northern gentleman a few days since, who had just been to Wilmington. He was delighted with the climate of the place, and also with the rare fishing and hunting sport, he found at the city. He said that "The Orton" under the management of Mr. Montague was one of the most delightful hotels he had found in the South. All tourists going to and from between the North and South desire to stop at some halfway place for a week or more to break the extreme change in climate. When Wilmington many advantages are fully known it will get the great bulk of such transient pleasure and health seekers.

State Board of Agriculture.

Representative W. E. Stevens, of this county, the member of the Board of Agriculture for this district, returned from the December meeting last Saturday. He says that the Board will recommend that the Legislature put a tonnage tax of twenty-five cents per ton on guano for 1891, and twenty cents per ton for each subsequent year. This difference is made because a great deal of the next year's guano will have been placed in the State before the Legislature meets. This will raise some money (about $20,000 it is estimated) to pay the expenses of the Board and to run the Bureau of Immigration. The Legislature will also be asked to appropriate $25,000 annually for the A. and M. College. A committee, consisting of Col. W. F. Green, and Messrs. W. E. Stevens, J. F. Paine and A. Lezar was appointed to look after the passage of such legislation.

Sampson Boys at the M. and A. College.

On December 19th the students of the Mechanical and Agricultural College will have a public debate and other exercises, under the auspices of the Leazar Literary Society.

Mr. Wm. F. (Buck) Murphy, of Sampson, is President of the Society and Mr. Thomas Pigford, of Sampson, has been elected Chief Marshal for the occasion. The Sampson boys always come to the front if he has half a showing and nine times out of ten, if you don't give him a swifling, he will make one for himself.

Thy Big Dinner in Western Sampson.

The Western Sampson Dinner will be given by the Sub-Alliances of that section. They extend an invitation and request to all others to assist, who feel so inclined. Hon. B. F. Grady has been invited to deliver the address. The good people of Western Sampson extend an invitation to the public to go and join them in rejoicing over the great people's victory of last November.

A Fine Reputation as a Hotelier.

Mr. Will Hunter, proprietor of the Hotel Gregory at Goldsboro, is making a fine reputation every day he lives as a hotelier. We have from a direct source that he is running one of the most popular hotels in the State. He is always polite and ever attentive to the wants of the public.—News and Observer.

The right way to cure catarrh is to eradicate the poisonous taint which causes the disease, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

press, lecturers and membership of the Order, all measures or bill, together with arguments in their favor, as they may decide should be enacted into laws.

In relation to the political action of the Alliance President Polk said, that while the Order is political, it cannot be partisan or sectional in its action. In support of this declaration the President pointed to the record of the Alliance in the recent popular elections, and particularly to the noble and patriotic bearing of the brotherhood in Kansas and South Carolina.

In regard to the record of the Alliance during the past year, and especially with reference to the legislation demanded by it, Mr. Polk declared that Congress had persistently ignored all of its propositions, notably in the case known as the Sub-Treasury bill. "Congress," he said, "must come nearer to the people, or the people will go nearer to Congress."

He spoke in favor of the people and a people's government, a government that will secure equal rights to all and special privileges to none. The only objection to his speech was that of brevity.

GOOD SPEECH AND A BIG DINNER.

(Special Correspondent.)

NEWTON GROVE, Nov. 26, 1890.

The people of this section celebrated the victory won all over the country at the polls on the 4th inst. by giving a big dinner on last Saturday. It was indeed a grand time for Newton Grove and adjoining townships.

The Hon. C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro, was invited to deliver the oration, but failed to come, but we had speaking nevertheless.

Mr. R. R. Bell, one of the representatives elect to the next Legislature of North Carolina, was the first to speak.
